This 1 credit (Pass/Fail) course consists of meetings between the student and a staff member to consider current problems in biomedical research. The format and location of the meetings are left to the discretion of the mentor and student.

The student is required to make contact and arrange to have a meeting with a mentor who should be a member or associate member of the Department of Physiology. Students must confirm with Dr. Lukacs, via email, the first meeting arrangement with their mentor by Tuesday, September 12, 2017. A list of mentors who have agreed to participate will be available at the meeting with Dr. Lukacs on Wednesday September 6 from 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm in room 1019. Many available professors, however, may not have sent a reply and should be approached individually if the student has a particular interest in their research area. Students are reminded to register for PHGY 359D on Minerva after changing their program to Honours Physiology.

A minimum of 4 student-mentor meetings per term is required. For each session, the student must provide a short summary of the meeting including, references to papers discussed. For the first semester at least 4 meeting summaries are due by Monday, December 4, 2017; the last four meeting summaries by Tuesday, April 10, 2018. The summaries should be sent as an e-mail attachment to Dr. Lukacs; mentors may also require a copy of the summary. Participation is required to obtain a passing grade.
